How old were you when you started your first racing stable? 18

Who is your mentor? My father (Charlie "Chuck" Sundeen)

How has this person earned mentor status with you?

He introduced me to the sport, and took me all over the country racing horses.

Which horse was your favorite to train and race? FOX FALLEY RAVEN

Why was this horse your favorite?

He was not the soundest horse in the barn, but he loved to win, which always makes the trainer look good. He had a mark of 1:49.2 and made over $500,000.

Briefly describe your training strategies for preparing a two year old to race?

Patience, Patience, Patience!

Do you use different training strategies for claimers than you do for stake races?

Yes, generally claimers race every week and do not require heavy training,

What advice would you give to someone wanting to become a first time trainer?

Become acquainted with a trainer and listen and learn as much as possible.

Most importantly, listen to the horses, they can teach you more than anyone else.

What hobbies do you enjoy not related to horse racing?

Golf & Snow Skiing
